RECONSTRUCTION HORRORS IN THE SOUTH.

The shocking outreges upon life and property which have been perpetrated of late in Arkansas and other portions of the South afford another specimen of the workings of reconstruction, surpassing even that of Tennessee. The arming of a militia composed in great part of ignorant and unfit men has led to scenes of bloodshed, and of worse than bloodshed, which it is appalling to contemplate. The Arkansas militia are charged with plundering the people, arresting citizens without warrant, murdering prisoners, ravishing women, while in the mean time the cotton fields, white with cotton, are left to destruction. The radical Governor of the State has actually authorized this militia to forage upon the communities in which they may happen to be, and this in time of peace!

The Ogeechee troubles in Georgia, which have only been quieted by the military finally taking charge, are a later exhibition of that which malignant interlopers are trying to fashion into an "irrepressible conflict" between the two races. Because of some alleged disagreement about wages or their proportion of the crops, the colored population of that district is said to have been worked up to a state of complete insurrection, compelling the white inhabitants to flee to the cities for protection, and attempting to take forcible possession of the lands and property of the whites, which they had been promised by political adventurers, but found they could only obtain by violence.

In both the Arkansas and Georgia troubles there have been representations made by military officials, whose partisanship is patent to every eye, to explain away and belittle these occurrences, which, if it can be done, would have the effect of showing that reconstruction is notworking altogether in the direction of political and social chaos. It is admitted, however, in the letter of Gen. Porter, who professes to have investigated the Arkansas troubles, that "the militia punishes all the disloyal and extorts pledges from them to support the laws." He also states that the Governor "could seldom secure good men for officers, and in the eastern counties he had to depend entirely upon negroes as soldiers."—Here, then, is conceded to be an organization which "good men" could not be had to command, and which in the eastern counties was composed entirely of negroes, and this organization punished disloyally and extorted pledges, being themselves, for aught that appears to the contrary, judge, jury and executioner! It is also admitted in the report that business men of all parties were injured where martial law was proclaimed, travel interfered with, supplies taken from the people "under orders," and that one of the negro militia had ravished a white woman, for which he says he was executed, though how many more offences of the same kind were perpetrated for which no one was punished does not appear. Gen. Porter seems to rely a good deal upon the statements of the Governor of Arkansas, the party who is principally criminated in these proceedings, and whose repeated and unwarranted attempts heretofore to subject Arkansas to martial law show the manner of man he is. It is by no means probable that there should have been such a number of refugees from Arkansas to Memphis on account of the conduct of the militia, if their deportment had been as decorous and orderly as Gen. Porter seems to suppose.—In regard to the Ogechee troubles in Georgia, the palliating statements of Colonel Williams, in his report to Gen. Sibley, seem to be founded on the declarations of the accused parties themselves, and are in direct contradiction to affidavits by two of the sufferers from these outrages. These are but specimens of the peace that follows reconstruction.

In all these difficulties the military have to be called in. That is the uniform recourse. Reconstruction, so called, everywhere has to be supplemented by the sword. The army is the common umpire to whose arbitration both sides in the South must needs submit. Thus only is it that order is or will be preserved, and thereby we understand how it is possible to realize the sentiment, "Let us have peace." Whether the cost of peace preserved by such instrumentalities is likely to be much less than the cost of war, is a question worthy to be considered by an economical administration.

The condition of the South is, indeed, most pitiable and distressing. A feeling of insecurity and fearful solicitude pervades whole communities, more terrible than that of men who live on the crust of a volcano. For it is not only life that is in peril, it is not only property, but it is all that makes life worth having—it is the sacredness of mothers, wives and daughters, exposed to outrages in peace, which, when committed by the Sepoys of India in war, filled the whole civilized world with horror. It is the foreboding of the dismal and nameless outrages, resulting from the evil influence exerted by social monsters from the North, in inflaming all the brutal passions of their former slaves, that keep the Southern people keenly sensitive to the peril of armed organizations of blacks, urged on by emissaries who seem to care not what outrage or crime may be committed, so it inures to their personal and political aggrandizement. The occurrence of such shocking crimes as are often detailed, is manifestly the work of these adventurers from abroad. That the communities in the South, especially the women, old men and children, have no reason to apprehend such crimes from the unfortunate colored population when left to themselves, is proved by their whole history in bondage, and especially during the civil war, when, with no male protectors upon the solitary plantation, the female community was perfectly secure. It is only since men have come among them reeking with the licentiousness of certain depraved classes in the North, and swayed by the vilest sentiments of vindictiveness and greed, that such horrible atrocities as are recorded have become of frequent occurrence. Yet, to such frightful terrors, casting their shadows over Southern households, additional gloom is added by the conviction that it they exercise the right of self protection natural to all mankind, they will be denounced as rebels, and visited with political vengeance. That retaliatory outrages should be committed in such a state of society is what might naturally be looked for, but if they occur, the responsibility rests on those who are provoking the Southern people to desperation, and then, when violent natures among them avail themselves of the opportunity thus created, holding all responsible for the excesses of a few.

What if the North were made the scene of such horrors as the South is subjected to? How long would it be able to preserve the extraordinary composure and equanimity, the indifferent air of "Am I my brother's keeper?" with which it regards the deeds now occurring in Southern States? This indifference indicates the programme and shows the animus of some of the radical leaders. Let them not lift the curtain too abruptly, lest the whole moral sense of Christendom should receive a shock that will make itself felt, even at this distance from the central seats of the world's civilization, in the scorn and execration of all mankind.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

$1,000,000!

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK,.....President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS.....Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE.....Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER.....Consulting Actuary
DANIEL AYRES, M. D. LL.D...Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

LIFE INSURANCE.

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

HON. E. A. BULKELEY, President,
AUSTIN DUNHAM, Vice "
T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.
H. W. STJOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am't insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:
Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $330,942.06.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in life insurance and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 15, 1869.

DESPOTISM OF RECONSTRUCTION.

We continue, to-day, the publication of Governor Worth's letter to President Johnson. The letter is a long one and as good as it is long.

We wish that Judge Tourgee's name had not appeared in the letter, for we have said enough about him to radiate sufficient light on Reconstruction from his stand-point.

And now we take this occasion to say to the Judge, that we are not moved by revenge or malice in the publication of the letter, notwithstanding he threatens, under certain contingencies, to put us in jail with the Grand Jury of Orange, because they presented him. We bear no malice.

If the Judge will recant that Philadelphia speech, or prove the truth, even by a negro witness, of the allegation that fifteen dead negroes were drawn out of one pond, and twelve hundred Union men had been driven from the State, and will not again, while riding the Circuit as a Judge, declare himself a candidate for Congress, he may yet redeem himself with our people. For they are brave, magnanimous and forgiving.

You may not be aware of it, Judge, but your political character and political standing in the State are, this day, better than those of your brother Codifiers of the Code. We say political standing, and why should it not be? You are, as the Grand Jury of Orange presented you, a stranger to the State. You are an adventurer—as much so as Pizarro was in Mexico. By degrading the natives and making treasonous—enfranchising the negro and disfranchising the whites—you have obtained places of great honor, profit and trust. The natives can forgive you; they deem themselves as fairly the objects of your prey, as spring chickens are of the hawk, or the lamb of the eagle, or the sheep of the wolf. But they cannot forgive the Codifiers of the Code, the Judges, the members of Congress, and the Courts, who hunted with Tourgee and the wolves. The natives can't forgive the Governor and the Lieut. Governor, for hunting with Tourgee and the wolves. The natives can't forgive Dick and Settle, Rodman and Reade, Pearson and Cantwell, Victor Barringer and Dave Jenkins, Jno. Pool and Starbuck, Jaybird Jones and Spectacular Cloud, &c., &c., for hunting with Tourgee and the wolves; yes, with Tourgee, the niggers and the wolves, until they hunted down Worth and Judge Battle, Barnes and Gilliam, Warren and Shipp, Best and Bedford Brown, Hanes and Kemp P. Battle.

If the natives are to be longer punished, let it fall henceforth upon the guilty,—let it fall upon Judge Dick, Judge Thomas, Governor Holden, and their co-signers of the ordinance of secession. Let it fall on us, on the Code, on the Court, and no longer on the old, the humble, and the weak, like the late Marshal of the Court!

We say it, with all reverence, before God and the country, it is a crime against justice and humanity to allow an ex-Confederate Senator, an ex-Confederate Judge, and a signer of all our woes, the ordinance of Secession, to punish James Litchford for treason!

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF N. C.,
RALEIGH, Dec. 31, 1867.

At the Superior Court of Law of Granville County, in March, 1865, two negro men were convicted of rape on the body of Susan J. Daniels. One of the convicts, William Cooper, was executed; the other, Henderson Cooper, escaped, and, as I am informed, took refuge in Virginia, and was still in that State in the Fall of the year 1866.

I sent the Sheriff of Granville, with my requisition on the Governor of Virginia, for the rendition of this fugitive from justice. Governor Pierpoint gave the Sheriff his warrant accordingly. When the Sheriff went to Virginia, he found that the fugitive was in Washington City; whereupon, the Sheriff hired a man, who knew the criminal and his whereabouts in Washington, to go over to Washington City and hunt him up. Justice Walter granted a warrant and a policeman arrested him and put him in prison. Deputy Marshal P. Dulips and Justice Walter said that they could not give him up under the warrant of the Governor of Virginia, without his consent, but that they would give him up if he would consent to go voluntarily; but if he would not consent to go voluntarily, he would be detained in prison till the Sheriff could return to this city and get a requisition for his surrender on the authorities of the District of Columbia. Upon a representation of these facts to the criminal by the Sheriff and policeman, he consented to come voluntarily, if the Sheriff would promise that the criminal's wife should be allowed to visit him occasionally in jail. This the Sheriff promised and performed. He went voluntarily on board the Potomac boat with the Sheriff and was brought and confined in the Granville jail. The Sheriff has twice made this statement before a Military Board, but Gens. Sickles and Canby take care to recite, in their official papers, that "he was pursued and captured in Washington, D. C., on the 25th of October, 1866, after the surrender of the rebel forces and without due process of law." Why this recital was so carefully preserved and reiterated is not perceived, unless with the purpose of showing the rebellious and defiant spirit of the Sheriff of Granville, (one of the most quiet men in America,) leading him to go to the National Capital, under the nose of Congress, and lawlessly to arrest and bring away a citizen of African descent!

At the Spring Term of 1867, Judge Warren presiding, the Sheriff was ordered to hang the convict on the 5th of April ensuing. On the 1st of April, 1867, General Sickles issued an order to Col. Bomford, Post Commander here, reciting that "the prisoner was tried and convicted by a Court not recognized by the United States; that the prisoner escaped from the custody of persons engaged in armed rebellion against the United States; and he was pursued and recaptured in Washington, D. C., on the 25th of October, 1866, after the surrender of the rebel forces and without due process of law, and it is hereby ordered that the sentence and all the proceedings in the case be and they are hereby revoked and declared null and void." He further orders "the commanding officer of the District of North Carolina to take Henderson Cooper, freedman, in military custody, and investigate the allegations against him, and report what further action is in his judgment necessary and proper." (See copy annexed, marked D.)

It is understood and admitted that this action was based upon an ex parte preliminary enquiry and report made by Bvt. Brig. Gen. R. Avery, Inspector of the Freedman's Bureau.

Sometime afterwards, I was furnished by Gen. Sickles with the report of the Court of Inquiry organized by the commanding officer here, (of which Court Gen. Avery was a member,) a copy of which, marked E, is annexed. The report, dated the 22nd of April, 1867, shows that the Board did not summon or examine the victim of the outrage, nor her little daughter who witnessed it, both at their homes in the country, nor, so far as I can learn by the report or otherwise, any other person who was a witness at the trial, nor the Solicitor who prosecuted, nor either of the two able lawyers who were assigned by the Court and who defended the prisoner, though one of them lived on the ground and the other not far off. It does not appear that any effort was made to summon any of these persons.

The allegation that the negroes, who knew anything of the case, "evidently feared that personal violence would be done them, should they testify to anything displeasing to their former masters," and that "the white men who were examined gave their testimony in a guarded and cautious manner, seeming to fear that they might in some way reflect upon the fairness of the action of their own Courts," is a story fit only to be told to the marines. Everybody knows that, under the present Government of the military and Freedmen's Bureau, nobody has anything to fear who takes sides with a negro, or abuses the civil government of the State!

The report states, as the "opinion" of the Board, that the character of the prosecutrix is bad. Whether this "opinion" was founded on any evidence, or on what evidence, I am ignorant, but, from the fact that no evidence of this character was adduced, either in the civil Court or on the trial before the Court Martial, to which I shall presently refer, it is fair to infer that there was no such evidence before the Board,—Col. Bomford and Gen. Avery, members of this Board, being two members of the Court Martial.

But perhaps the most remarkable feature of this report is, that the Board deem it pertinent to the inquiry submitted to them, to state that, at the time the alleged outrage was committed, "the woman's husband was engaged in dressing staves; he was at that time, in fact, in the rebel army."

The Board winds up with the sage conclusion "that a crime has been committed, which, although not meriting so severe a penalty as that of death, should secure some punishment." See copy of my comments on this document addressed to Gen. Sickles, marked F.

Up to this time I knew nothing as to the facts proved on the trial. This report awakened my curiosity, and, learning that Mr. — — Hays, of Oxford, a gentleman alike distinguished for personal virtues and legal learning, one of the lawyers who defended these negroes, and that Samuel A. Williams, a pious gentleman of Oxford, had visited the negroes in jail, after condemnation, to pray with them and prepare them for death, I addressed a letter to these gentlemen, asking for such information as they could give, touching the guilt or innocence of Henderson Cooper. Mr. Hays answered that the trial established the guilt of the prisoners beyond a doubt, and that the trial was in all things a fair one. Williams answered that the convicts, without the slightest influence offered by him, voluntarily confessed to him that they were guilty and ought to die, and besought him to pray for them and prepare them for death, and that he communicated this fact to General Avery, when he was making his preliminary investigation!

These letters I immediately sent to Gen. Sickles.

I heard nothing more from the case till I was informed, on the 2nd of October last, by the Sheriff of Granville, that a Court Martial was sitting in our Common Hall, trying Henderson Cooper.—Col. Bomford being President of the Court and General Avery Judge Advocate. I immediately addressed a note to Gen. Avery, in these words: "I respectfully ask that, in the trial of Henderson Cooper, which I learn is now in progress before a military Court sitting in this city, of which you are Judge Advocate, the State may be represented—counsel to be appointed by me." As the trial was one impeaching the integrity of one of our Courts, I did not anticipate a refusal and immediately sent for a lawyer, Hon. S. F. Phillips, who came to my office, and, with the aid of the Sheriff of Granville, I was putting him in possession of the facts to enable him to manage the prosecution. While we were conferring, Gen. Avery appeared and notified me, which he afterwards put in writing, that my request could not be granted, "as it is contrary to all precedent and against the usages of the service. The cases now nearly completed, the greater portion of the evidence for the prosecution having been already taken."—I then asked him if he would cause to be summoned and examined such witnesses as I would designate. He desired to know what witnesses I wanted, and what they would be expected to prove. I told him I wanted to prove, beyond cavil, that the character of the prosecutrix was without blemish, in contradiction of his report. I designated the Sheriff of Granville, then present, as one of the witnesses I wanted for this purpose; that I wanted Mr. Williams to prove that the prisoner, after conviction, voluntarily confessed his guilt to him, (Williams,) and that he (Williams) had communicated this fact to him, Gen. Avery, when he was making the preliminary inquiry, which had led to the interference with the action of our Courts!? He replied that the evidence of the prisoner's guilt, then before the Court, was plenary; that no evidence impeaching the character of the prosecutrix had been offered; that the trial was about concluded, and expressed repugnance to protracting the trial by summoning and examination of more witnesses, but agreed to offer the Sheriff to prove the character of the prosecutrix, who, as I was informed, was examined and proved her character very good. See my letter to Gen. Avery, marked G, dated October 10th, 1867, in which I specially call attention to what Williams would prove.

He was convicted and ordered to be hanged, as appears by General Orders, No. 125, hereto annexed, dated November 20th, 1867, but Gen. Canby set aside this finding, on the ground that "it was error to refer this case to a Military Commission, &c."—See order annexed, marked H. He held that the action of our Courts was void, as also that of the Court Martial, and directs that the prisoner be "remanded to the custody of the civil authorities for trial, under a new presentment or indictment." The effect of all which is that this monster is to go unpunished, although convicted by both a civil and military Court. If a new indictment be found, he will plead conviction and must be necessarily acquitted, and if the Judge cause him to be hanged, under the former conviction, of course Gen. Canby would have the Judge hanged under the military law!

This was a rape of peculiar atrocity.—Two strong negro s entered the house of a poor but worthy woman, and, in the presence of her little daughter, each of them commits rape on her, and our military government interposes and allows one of the monsters to go unpunished. The history of this case is extensively known in the State. If alienation to the government is this State is on the increase, as is often alleged to our prejudice, is it to be wondered a ? How many communities are there at the North, where this negro, under these circumstances, would not be dragged from prison and hanged by lynch law? There is no danger of it here. Our people, conscious of their helplessness, are resolved to endure and submit to the laws, confiding in an awakening sense of mercy and justice, on the part of the dominant power of the nation, the dawn of which they think may be perceived in the late Northern elections.

In closing this subject, I think it due to Col. Bomford, who has long been stationed here, to say that I regard him as a good man, and in every way a gentleman, but that, in these matters, wherein he has been associated with Gen. Avery, who claims to be a lawyer, the Colonel has unduly deferred to the opinions of his associate."

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

THURSDAY, Jan. 14, 1869.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Winstead, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported favorably on a bill to place the county of Duplin in the 3rd, and Onslow in the 4th, Judicial Districts.

Mr. Graham, from the Committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred a resolution instructing them to report a bill for the more speedy removal of tenants who hold over, asked to be discharged from its consideration. Concurred in. (A bill of a similar character having been presented by the Code Commission.)

Mr. Graham, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported a substitute for a bill to amend section 21, chapter 34, Revised Code.

Mr. Barrow, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported favorably on a bill to prevent the felling of timber in the Catawba River.

Mr. Love, from the Special Committee on the time for holding the Courts, reported favorably on a bill to change the time of holding the Courts in the counties of Hyde and Martin.

Mr. Osborne, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported favorably on a bill to prevent persons injuring or killing another's live stock.

A message was received from the House, transmitting a communication from the Governor, appointing T. F. Lee and J. B. Neathery Directors of the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Asylum; which were approved.

Also, a bill to amend an act, entitled "the Code of Civil Procedure." Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary, and, on motion of Mr. Forkner, ordered to be printed.

NOTICE OF BILLS.

By Henry Eppes, (colored): Of a bill to repeal an act concerning the Registering of Deeds.

By Mr. Martindale: Of a bill to enable the city of Raleigh to borrow money on her bonds.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Lassiter: A bill to codify the laws in reference to the Insane Asylum. Ordered to be printed and referred to the Committee on the Insane Asylum.

By Mr. Jones, of Wake: A bill to incorporate the Raleigh Cemetery Association. Referred to the Committee on Corporations.

By Mr. Respass: A bill for the better protection of infant tenants in common. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

By Mr. Sweet: A bill to grant to the United States a certain tract of land situated in the County of Wake. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

By Mr. Forkner: A resolution, proposing to raise a Committee to revise the rules of order. Lies over one day under the rule.

By Mr. Barnes: A resolution instructing the Committee on the Judiciary to inquire into the expediency of amending the Road law, in order to declare it a misdemeanor for any person to fail to work the Roads, when it is his duty, and to report by bill or otherwise. Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Love, the rules were suspended, which required his resolution in reference to the Penitentiary Stockade to lie over, and it was sent to the House.

On motion of Mr. Winstead, the vote, by which the bill allowing County Commissioners to appoint Wood Inspectors was rejected on yesterday, was reconsidered.—[This bill allows said Inspectors 10 cents on each cord of wood, to be paid by the purchaser.]

On motion of Mr. Respass, its further consideration was postponed until to-morrow.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

Bill to protect certain persons who rented lands from the United States Treasury Agents during the late war passed.

Bill to repeal an act restoring to married women their common law right of dower.

On motion of Mr. Brogden, it was made the special order for Monday next, 12 o'clock.

Leave of absence was granted Messrs. Moore, of Yancey, Mason, Hayes and Colgrove.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Bill providing for the settlement of the estates of deceased person, after some discussion, passed—ayes 21, nays 20.

SPECIAL ORDER, VIZ:

"Bill to create a Mechanics' and Laborers' Lien was taken up.

Pending its consideration,

The Senate adjourned until to-morrow, 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, Jan. 14, 1869.

House called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. B. W. Morris, (colored,) of the House.

Mr. Proffitt arose to a question of privilege. He was reported, on the Journal of last session, as voting to lay on the table the resolution, in reference to removing the political disabilities of the citizens of this State. He had voted against the motion to lay on the table.

The Chair ordered the correction to be made, and the fact to be noted in to-day's Journal.

Messrs. Smith, of Alleghany, Dixon and Sykes presented the reports of the Commissioners of their counties. The reports were appropriately referred.

Mr. French presented the map of the townships of New Hanover county. Referred.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Dixon, from the Committee on Claims, reported upon several bills, which were placed upon the calendar, and will be noticed when they come up.

Mr. Sinclair, from the Committee on Private Bills, reported back several petitions in reference to the county of Dare, and ask of that they be referred to the Committee on Counties and Townships. The reference was ordered.

BILLS.

Mr. Hodnett offered a bill to repeal an act, entitled "an act to incorporate the town of Milton."

Mr. H., at the same time, presented a petition in reference to the same matter, from the citizens of Caswell county. Both the bill and the petition were appropriately referred.

By Mr. Ragland: A bill to amend the charter of the town of Henderson, Granville county. Referred.

Mr. Ingram moved that, from and after Monday next, this House hold evening sessions, commencing at 7½ o'clock.

Mr. Sinclair moved to except Thursday evenings.

Mr Ingram accepted the amendment, and the motion, as amended, was then put and carried.

On motion of Mr. Sinclair, the rules were suspended, and the bill for the relief of the Sheriff of Columbus county was taken up, together with a substitute reported by the Committee for the original bill.

On motion, the substitute was adopted, and the bill then passed its several readings.

On motion of the same, the rules were suspended, and the bill for the relief of W. H. Gentry, Sheriff of Stokes, was taken up and passed its several readings.

By consent, Mr. Estes introduced a joint resolution, directing the Secretary of State to return to this General Assembly the "act to re-enact and confirm the issue of bonds to certain Railroad Companies."

Mr. Estes moved to suspend the rules and adopt.

Mr. Hinnant, from the Committee on Enrolment, reported that the Committe had succeeded in finding the bill, as it passed this House, with the certificate upon it of Jno. H. Bonner, Clerk of this House. The Committee compared the paper, thus certified by the Clerk of the House, with the enrolled bill in the office of the Secretary of State, and found the enrolment to be correct.

Mr. Estes said that there were discrepancies between the certified copy and the bill as it passed the Senate, &c.

The motion to suspend the rules was put and prevailed and the resolution adopted.

Mr. Estes moved that a joint Committee be raised, consisting of three, on the part of the House, and two on the part of the Senate, to investigate this matter. Carried.

On motion of Mr. Foster, the rules were suspended, and the resolution in favor of W. H. White, late Sheriff of Bladen County, was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Blair, the rules were suspended, and Mr. Malone's resolution, in regard to printing the laws, was taken up.

[This resolution provides that the act, ratified on the 6th of August, 1868, be so amended that no laws shall be printed for the use of the members, except general laws; and that no general law shall be printed, under this resolution, except ordered by the House, on motion being made to that effect.]

Mr. Estes moved to amend, by striking out all after the word "general laws," and inserting the words "and the speaker shall determine what are general laws."

Mr. Malone accepted the amendment, and the resolution was adopted and ordered to be sent to the Senate for concurrence.

B. W. Morris, (colored,) introduced a resolution that any members, during the night session, who are not present on such nights, shall pay to the State $3 for each neglect, unless he or they shall have good reasons for his or their absence.

On motion, the rules were suspended, and on motion of Mr. Justice, of Rutherford, the resolution was laid on the table.

On motion of Mr. Estes, the rules were suspended and the bill to provide for the collection of taxes by the State, and by the several counties of the State, on property, polls and incomes, was taken up.

The discussion of section 1 was resumed, Mr Hodnett, by consent, withdrew his amendment offered yesterday.

The question recurred upon Mr. Malone's substitute, when Mr. Malone, by general consent, withdrew his amendment, accepting one offered by Mr. Estes.

The question then recurred upon the substitute offered by Mr. Argo, yesterday.

Mr. Argo said that, on yesterday, he had stated the reasons that induced him to offer this substitute. They were, in his opinion, found by the Constitution to assess property at its true money value. Now, how is this value to be ascertained? They had no right to sit here and assume an arbitrary valuation, &c. The only manner to arrive at a true value of real property and to do justice to all was to have assessments made at short intervals.

Mr. Estes argued against the adoption of the substitute.

Mr. Ingram said that while he opposed the amendment of Mr. Hodnett, yesterday, he did not fully endorse the section as it then stood, though the Reporter of one of the papers (Sentinel) had so reported him. He favored the section now, as amended by Mr. Estes.

The question then recurred upon Mr. Argo's substitute, and it was put to a vote and lost.

Mr. Estes moved to amend by striking out, in line 2, "1871," and inserting "1869." Carried.

Mr. Estes moved to strike out, in the same, "five years" and insert "two years." Carried.

Mr. E. moved to strike out all after the word "prescribed," in the 1st. line.

Section 1, as amended, was then adopted.

Section 2 was read and adopted.

In section 3, Mr. Malone moved, in line 7, to strike out the words "two others," and insert "two free holders."

Mr. Seymour moved to amend the amendment, by substituting the word "voters" for the word "others" in the same line. Adopted.

The question recurring upon the amendment, as amended, it was lost.

Mr. Durham moved to amend the section, as follows: "That the persons composing the Board of valuation shall, before entering upon their duty, be sworn to value the real estate in their townships, according to its true value in money at the time such valuation is made."

Mr. Seymour moved to strike out, in line 7, the word "others," and insert, "other persons."

On motion of Mr. S., the yeas and nays were called, which resulted in the rejection of the amendment, by a vote of, yeas 41, nays 43.

Mr. Estes moved to strike out, in line 6, all after the word, "counties," down to the word "whenever," in the 8th. Carried.

On motion of Mr. Stilley the words "a board of valuation, to consist of three voters, one of whom shall be a freeholder and tax list taker," were inserted in lieu of the words stricken out by the amendment of Mr. Estes.

The question recurred upon the amendment of Mr. Durham, pending the discussion of which the House adjourned until to-morrow morning, 10 o'clock.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, as any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleaning a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the State.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of anti-strumous virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be so reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, bestious habits, uncleanliness, and the depressing vices generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, where not fortified by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the robust, also, whose turbid blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often contaminated, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on immunity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Ears and Eyes, and other eruptive or visible forms of the diseases caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is so efficient as to be indispensable. And in the more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and other affections of the muscular and nervous systems, the Sarsaparilla, through its purifying power, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself achieve these results. It is aided by the extracts combined with it, of still greater power. So potent is this union of healing virtues, Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases in general, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by the invigorating and purifying effect of our Sarsaparilla. Rheumatism and Gout, often dependent on the accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, have their remedy also in this medicine. For Liver Complaints, torpidity, inflammation, abcess, etc., caused by rankling poisons in the blood, we unhesitatingly recommend the Sarsaparilla.

The same cause restores health and vigor where no specific disease can be distinguished. Its restorative power is soon felt by those who are Languid, Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and filled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or who are troubled with any other of those affections symptomatic of weakness. Many, after taking it for General Debility, have written us of the youthful vigor imparted to their nervous system, which seemed buoyant with that prolific life they thought had departed on the advance of age. Others, whose fortunes of life were always stable, acknowledge their obligations to it for an obvious change.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to imitate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent med

Rt. Rev. Bishop Atkinson made his annual visitation to St. Stephen's Church, Guildeboro', on Sunday last. He preached a most interesting discourse and administered the rite of confirmation to a class of ten,—eight males and two females.

The Warrenton Courier says that the "infant city" of Ridgeway, under the management of Messrs. Hawkins, Heck, Johnson & Co., is looking up. A hotel and several dwellings are in process of construction, and streets laid off and graded.

Capt. W. B. Pope, an esteemed citizen of Halifax, who had frequently represented the County in the Legislature and filled other places of public trust, died at his residence in that County, on Saturday last, after an exceedingly brief illness.

We learn, with profound regret, from the Fayetteville Eagle, that the Hon. Jesse G. Shepherd is in the last stage of consumption.

Still the wonder grows, whether Daddy Fowles will accept office at the hands of the "traitor," Andrew Johnson?

The forty-seven votes in the House against the repeal of the tenure-of-office law were all Republicans, and included some leading ones—as Schenck, Shellabarger, Maynard, Garfield, Stokes, Farnsworth, and others. The Democrats voted "aye."

Col. W. F. Beasley, formerly of this State, now of Louisville, Ky., is manufacturing sugar from sorghum. The Editor of the Norfolk Virginian has examined it and found the chrystals perfect. The mode of manufacture is perfectly simple.

On Sunday evening last Chief Justice Chase appeared in a new role. Before a numerous and fashionable congregation at one of the Episcopal Churches in Washington he delivered an address on the subject of "Christian Missions," which he stated were destined to effect what all the conquerors of the world from Nimrod to Napoleon had failed to accomplish—the subjugation of the whole world. Though there were but $30,000,000 Christians against 600,000,000 anti-Christians on the globe, and though, comparatively speaking, but few were engaged in disseminating the doctrine of Christianity, still he believed the time not far distant when the world would be subjugated by the power of Him who said, "Go ye and teach all nations." He saw all the signs of the coming religious unity.

Glorious old Jubal Early writes from Canada, under date of 5th inst., to a friend in Richmond, as follows:

"I am sorry to see that a proposition is mooted by some of our people for a compromise on the basis of universal (including negro) suffrage and universal amnesty. I shall come back prepared to resist it to the bitter end. I cannot consent to be bribed by any such expedient into a sacrifice of principle. Let us maintain our honor if we lose all else."

The prospect for the passage of the bill repealing the Tenure of Office Act in the Senate is not believed to be so good, though a majority of the Judiciary Committee are regarded as in its favor.

The organization of the local thieving militia in Arkansas will be the subject of a resolution of inquiry in Congress in a day or two whether those troops have not been formed in violation of that section of the Army Appropriation bill which forbade the organization of State troops for the present in any of the reconstructed States. Although that section has been repealed, yet it was in force when these raiding robbers were put into the field.

The New York Herald has information from Washington that the Southern carpet-baggers are being understood and appreciated by members of Congress. The Reconstruction Committee, which has had a good many of the obscene birds before it, "has (it says) got its eyes opened to the fact that what is wanted by these men is a new deal of the offices, State and National." This set of adventurers are the greatest obstructions to a good understanding between the sections. Their object is the spoils; and as they are totally wanting in character, the only chance they stand for office is to laud their own loyalty and discredit others.

THE AUTOMATIC CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.—We continue to hear, on all sides, the most emphatic testimony to the great excellence of this labor-and-money-saving invention. It is, probably, the great invention of the times, and its success is guaranteed. Its coming into general use is only a matter of time; for every family will ultimately have one. Why not now? Call at the store of Messrs. Longee & Bro., where Mr. Hunter may be found, and test the merits of the Washer and Boiler.

PURE OLD CATAWBA.—We are indebted to A. C. Hege, of Lexington, N. C., the manufacturer, through Messrs. W. H. Jones & Co., for a bottle of pure old Cawtaba Wine. It is as fine as any imported wine and has delightful taste and body. No one need want better. We make our acknowledgments again to Mr. Hege and commend him and his delightful manufacture. Messrs. Jones & Co. are his Agents for this city.

Senate and Sentinel Correspondence

SENATE CHAMBER,
Raleigh, January 7, 1869.

Mr. Josiah Turner, Jr., Editor Sentinel:

I observe, in your paper of the first of January, the following Editorial:

"The last news from Oxford is that Gen. Littlefield paid Mr. Robt. W. Lassiter, the Senator from Granville, $7,000,—at the rate of twenty dollars per acre, for land so poor that the very squirrels go about crying all the Fall, because of the scarcity of food.—A Granville man declared to us that he would not give fifty cents an acre for the land, and that if a kildee grazed upon it he would get so poor that Lassiter would have to let down the fence to drive him off the wheat, for he would not be able to fly!—Now this much is of record."

The above is a false statement, for which, as the matter now stands, you are responsible. You say, however, that a Granville man is your informant. If such be the fact, I expect you to publish the information with the name of the author.

In justice to myself, I ask the insertion of this card in your paper.

Yours Respectfully,
R. W. LASSITER.

SENTINEL OFFICE, Jan. 14, 1869.

Hon. R. W. Lassiter, Senator from Granville:

DEAR SIR:—The sensation produced by our correspondence is wonderful. Mr. Reams, of Granville, has just called in and declares that your constituents are delighted with it. But enough of compliment.—You know I am not prone to flatter.

Mr. Reams says that, long before we opened our correspondence on the subject, it was reported, among your constituents, that you had sold your land for $20 an acre to Gen. Littlefield. He thinks better land can be bought for three dollars an acre. I have not yet heard from the Register's office whether your deed to Littlefield is recorded or not. I have not seen our mutual friend Simon, (a little boy says his dog's name is Carlo.)

No land trade in Granville ever excited so much interest before. One of your constituents, writing me, says that the late Col. R. O. Britton, after riding over your land, declared, that "for agricultural purposes, he would as soon own so much of the clear blue sky above him," and that your neighbor and friend, Daniel Paschal, said, after you had planted peas, and a refreshing shower had fallen from the heavens, that he heard the land grunt, (at the distance of a mile,) in an honest effort to sprout the peas! Upon inquiry we learned that there were twenty good mill sites on the land, if there was only water with the site!

Where is Gen. Littlefield? Can't Senator Sweet "ketch" him? As he owns the kildee property, you had as well omit any mention of it in our future correspondence, until he returns; and when the General returns, you and I will call and see him about the purchase of it.

Yours in the Union,
JOSIAH TURNER, Jr.

THE LATE REV. DR. PHILLIPS.—We mentioned, a few days since, that Mrs. Spencer was preparing a biographical sketch of her lamented and distinguished father, for publication in Wilson's Presbyterian Historical Almanac, and that the sketch would be accompanied by a fine lithographic portrait of Dr. Phillips, if one hundred cash subscribers, at $2 each, could be secured in North Carolina.

It will be remembered that K. P. Battle, Esq., some time ago, undertook, with commendable reverence for the character of Dr. Phillips, to secure a fund for the publication, in proper form, of Prof. Hepburn's eulogy on the life and services of the deceased. The amount raised, about $100, being insufficient, Mr. Battle now proposes, very judiciously, to turn it over to Wilson's Almanac to promote Mrs. Spencer's "labor of love." Of course the subscribers to the fund in question will receive the Almanac, with the sketch and portrait.

THE indignation pervading this community at the removal, by the Supreme Court, from the place (for it is no office) of Marshal, (as it is called by courtesy,) of our venerable and estimable townsman, James Litchford, is general and freely and loudly expressed. Mr. Litchford is one of the best citizens we have, of life-long integrity, of character in every respect above reproach, a consistent and devoted friend to the Union and the Constitution. He was a friend of both, long before at least two of the Judges were born, and a friend of both when others of the Judges were seeking the overthrow of the Union.

The pretext that Mr. Litchford is banned by the Howard Amendment from such a position is simply a miserable subterfuge. He is only banned, because he is too good a man and too true a patriot to be a Radical!

PENITENTIARY QUERIES.—Mr. D. J. Pryne is "Stockade Contractor" at the Chatham Park, vulgarly called a Penitentiary, and entered, as such, into a regular contract with the Committee.

Has that contract been changed, without authority of the majority of the Committee?

Has Mr. C. L. Harris, Superintendent of Public Works, but only one of the Committee, agreed to let Mr. Pryne, for Mr. Pryne's benefit, do so and so, in violation of the contract?

How much money has been paid out on account of the Penitentiary?

SPECIAL COURT.—It will be seen, by the announcement in another column, that Judge Watts has notified the Clerk of Wake Superior Court of his purpose to hold a Court of Oyer and Terminer, commencing in this city on Monday, 25th. inst. Prisoners confined in jail for capital and other felonies will be tried first.

HILLSBORO' RECORDER.—The venerable Editor of the Hillsboro Recorder, Dennis Heartt, Esq., retires from Editorial life, after nearly a half-century's labor "in the harness." His valedictory is so appropriate, that we shall take pesure in transferring it to our columns, to-morrow. We wish Mr. Heartt peace and happiness in his remaining days.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE.—From and after Saturday morning, the time for the departure and arrival of the trains on the North Carolina and Raleigh & Gaston Railroads, will be changed, as follows:

The mail train on the N. C. Railroad, going West, will pass here at 5 o'clock, P. M.

The train going East will arrive at 7 o'clock, A. M.

The Raleigh & Gaston train will leave for Weldon at 7.20 A. M. and arrive here at 4.45 P. M.

WE commend to attentive perusal the article on our first page, from the Baltimore Sun, on the "horrors of reconstruction." It comes in very appropriately, to-day, as a sequel to our own exposures of the "Despotism of Reconstruction" in North Carolina.

The kindly opinions Gen. Grant so generally entertains of military men and ex-officers, he does not seem to possess in regard to the valiant Kilpatrick, regarding whom, in a recent conversation, he thus freely expressed himself: When I assumed command of the armies Gen. Meade told me he must get rid of Kilpatrick, he knew too many politicians in Washington; through their influence and interference he compelled him (Gen. Meade) to permit, against his own judgment, the unfortunate raid upon Richmond, which resulted in the death of poor Dahlgreen and general disaster to the expedition. Johnson knew him better than the Republican party, or he would not have permitted him to come home to stump the country against the Democracy. That the friends of Mr. Dana should have selected a man like Kilpatrick to traduce Butler amazes me. If all that Butler's enemies say of him is true, Kilpatrick, without Butler's abilities, possesses additional elements of unpopularity that have never been charged on Butler. I think the Tenure of Office bill would have furnished slight obstacles to Mr. Johnson in ridding Chili of such an ambassador.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. World.

GENERAL STONEMAN—THE RECONSTRUCTION COMMITTEE.—General Stoneman, commander of the district of Virginia, called upon the President to-day, and was afterwards before the Reconstruction Committee, and made statements relative to removals of civil officers in Virginia.

Among the persons who testified before the committee was one who, upon interrogation, admitted that he was an applicant for the office of Supreme Court Judge of Virginia in case of the removal of the present incumbent, as to whose disability or ineligibility the witness had given testimony to the committee. Two of the Republican members—Messrs. Bingham and Farnsworth,—were indignant at the witness, when he disclosed his personal interest, and expressed their opinions freely.—Telegram, 13th.

A CLERICAL BOOK-THIEF—A MASSACHUSETTS CLERGYMAN ARRESTED.—The Boston Post of the 7th. instant says:

"There was considerable rejoicing last evening among the proprietors of our leading book establishments, over an arrest made by detective officer Hill, of a shrewd and most successful book thief, who proved to be a clergyman by the name of I. J. Sine, who resides at Somerville, Mass. Several hundred stolen volumes were found in his library, and it is ascertained that he has sold a number more—stealing from one bookseller and selling to another. Bad for the Godly Commonwealth."

A foreign physician has recently started the theory that children may be improved in mind as well as in body by the use of electricity. He gives the instance of a child, which was a phenomenon of deformity and stupidity, which, under the influence of electricity, grew three centimeters in a single month, and has since been always first, instead of last, in his class.—Vegetation is much richer and more rapid in its growth when electrified than other wise. The theorist proposes, by way of experiment, that the six lowest pupils of each class in a lyceum or college be subjected to this electrical treatment.

The last foreign mails bring the text of the petition addressed by certain members of the English Parliament to Mr. Reverdy Johnson, asking him to communicate with the United States Government upon the subject of the advantages to be derived from the establishment of a penny oceanic postage between the United States and Great Britain. The paper was signed by the members from forty-two cities, towns and counties, and the assertion is made that if there had been time to apply to every member of the House of Commons, there was the strongest reason for believing that not a single signature would have been withheld.

The New York Times, Herald and World are for once agreed. All three express the opinion that the New York Senatorship is up to the highest bidder—the man who will bid most will get it.

The World suggests, that if there are fifteen honest Republicans in the Legislature, the Democrats will join them and elect an honest Republican, such as Hamilton Fish or W. C. Bryant.

NO RESTRICTIONS ON ACCOUNT OF RACE OR COLOR.—The House Judiciary Committee have at last agreed to report for adoption a constitutional amendment declaring that there shall be no restriction on account of race or color in any State among voters for Presidential electors.

The Senatorial fight among the Republicans in the New York Legislature is becoming more and more interesting, since M. O. Roberts is now squarely in the ring. A cotemporary says the nomination in caucus will be made amid a shower of gold.

The Springfield Republican makes about as awkward a use of the editorial plural as we have often seen, when it says "we were born in February, and so was our wife."

A Christmas goose, sent by a kind friend to two prisoners in a Canada jail, was stuffed with files and steel saws.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14, M.

Wilson introduced a Bill, amending the tenure of office act. It restores the President's control of the Cabinet, and of the salary to ad interim officers. The Bill was referred to the Retrenchment Committee.

A Bill was introduced, allowing Mrs. Lincoln a pension.

Sumner introduced a Bill to enforce the 14th. Amendment, saying that events in Kentucky rendered early action imperative.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14, P. M.

The National Bricklayers' Convention visited Johnson to-day. The President said: "He was glad to meet with this National body of Bricklayers, and was thankful for the confidence reposed in him." "His past course," he said, "was a guarantee of his sympathy and identification with the labor interest of the country, without any speech in that direction at this time. If his acts did not speak for him, there was nothing that he could then say which would give them an assurance of his feelings."

Gillem's evidence before the Reconstruction Committee was pointed and to the effect that there was a fair election in Mississippi, and the Constitution was rejected.

Carl Schurz has been elected United States Senator from Missouri.

The National colored Convention is in session. Fred Douglas is President. A movement to exclude female delegates created great excitement. Fem les were finally admitted by a large majority. During the excitement, a Southern delegate vehemently opposed female suffrage.

The District Attorney of New York decides that the Amnesty Proclamation does not affect the case of Jno. C. Brane, a Confederate Naval officer, indicted for piracy.

The Virginia Committee, by a sub-Committee visited Generals Grant and Schofield. The interview is regarded as encouraging.

The Sue Murphy case was continued in the Senate. The opinion of the Senate, as enunciated by debates in this case, which is a type of many others, seems to be that loyalists should be paid for property taken or destroyed by the Army, though Sue Murphy's claim will probably be re-committed, for want of proof of loyalty.

The claim aggregates seven thousand dollars, occurring from the destruction of buildings by entrenchments on a farm. She was sixteen at the opening of the war, is now possibly twenty-four. Her family were "rebellious." Her only claim to loyalty was kindness to the Federal soldiers after the occupation. She fed them and was kind to their sick. Beyond this, she seems to have no record, whatever. This case may serve as a specimen of the kind of loyalty required to secure compensation for property used by the Federal Army throughout the South, and warn parties against spending money, time or hope in pushing similar claims.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 P. M.

SENATE.—Several petitions for female suffrage were presented.

The Naval Committee reported adversely to restoring Commodore R. W. Meade to the active list.

Sumner suggested that Mrs. Lincoln's pension be five thousand per annum.

The Sue Murphy case was resumed.

Wilson proposes a Commission, consisting of General Meigs, Howard, Thomas and Ekin, commencing with next April and to continue two years, to whom all such claims should be referred.

Without action, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—Ashley presented a bill, the object of which is to absorb the Mormon Territory, by increasing the boundries of the surrounding Territories.

The bill was made the special order for to-day two weeks, when a delegate from Utah is expected to be here.

The Election Committee reported in favor of seating Sweetzer, from the ninth Missouri District.

The Niagra Ship Canal was discussed, at great length, and the House adjourned.

DESTRUCTION OF A STEAMSHIP.

WILMINGTON, Jan. 14, P. M.

The Steamship Gulf City, from Galveston to New York, went aground off Lockout, at 10 o'clock Monday night. In a few hours it was dashed to pieces. Three of the crew were picked up by the Steamship W. P. Clyde, on Wednesday, at 2 o'clock, P. M., and brought to this place. There were twenty-five persons aboard the ill-fated ship. Only the three are known to have been saved.

FROM FLORIDA.

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 14, P. M.

A Committee, sent by authority from the Alabama Legislature, composed of C. A. Miller, Secretary of State, J. L. Pennington, State Senator, and A. J. Walker, Ex-Chief Justice to negotiate for the transfer of West Florida to Alabama, arrived to-day, called on Gov. Reed and presented credentials.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 15, 1869.

A STARTLING REPORT—THE SON OF THE LATE MRS. SIGOURNEY ALIVE—HE WAS CHANGED IN IN FANCY.

To the Editor of the New York Sun.—SIR: What I now write you may seem to you very strange, and hardly to be believed, but nevertheless it is strictly true. It is this:

It is a well-known fact that the late Mrs. Sigourney, of Hartford, Connecticut, had a son who was reported to have been drowned in the East River, New York, in 1857—I believe that is the year—but late confessions and documents of a dying woman prove the contrary. The legitimate son of the late Mrs. Lydia H. Sigourney is still living. He is a perfect image of his mother, and he also possesses his mother's talent, that of writing poetry and prose.—His name is Andrew. The person that was drowned, and was supposed to be her son, was not hers, but had been exchanged in infancy for her legitimate child, according to the confessions of a lady who lately died. This confession, with other letters and documents, will soon be given to the public through the press, and they are such that they will startle the whole community.—They are in the possession of a clergyman who is well known. Mrs. Sigourney's son served in the late war, and returned home a Major. He is now in a town in this State, loved and respected by all who know him. These are facts; and as he is pretty well known in your city, it may be of interest to many of your readers. Truly yours,

ALONZO HAWES,
Late of Hartford, Conn.

Address Box 90, St. Albans, Vt.

HOW MUCH, MARM?—We clip the following from an exchange. We advise nightly visitors of dry goods clerks to beware:

"A clerk in a dry goods store retired one night, having for his bed fellow an acquaintance dating back to school days. Our informant slept in the next room adjoining the door of which was partly open. In the middle of the night he says he was awakened from sleep by hearing the clerk, in a loud voice, exclaim, "How many yards did you say you wanted, marm? Three yards enough?" and the next thing heard a tearing noise, and the bed-fellow of the clerk shouted out, "What are you doing?—you have torn my shirt from top to bottom." The poor dreamer imagined himself in his store, waiting on a lady customer, who wanted three yards of calico. The shouts of merriment which the event created can well be imagined."

"And you have been married, Patrick, three times, haven't you?"

"Yes, indade, sir."

"And what do you say of it? Which wife did you like best?"

"Well, Becky O'Brien, that I married the first time, was a good woman,—too good for me; so she got sick and died, and the Lord took her."

"Then I got married to Bridget Flannagan. She was a bad woman; and she got sick and died, too, and the devil took her."

"Then, fool that I was, I got married to Margaret Haggerty. She was worse, very bad,—so bad that neither the Lord nor the devil would have her; so I have to keep her myself."

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

EXCELSIOR! ÆTNA!

Another Loss Paid, Dec. 23, 1868.

$5,000.

"Received of the ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, at the hands of W. H. Crow, General Agent, payment in full for my deceased husband's policy No. 43 681, amounting to $5, 00, dated 16th November, 1867.

MRS. BETTIE E. BARNETT.
Smithfield, N. C."

ALL THE COST of the above was $39.85. The assets of the Company are now

$11,000,000,

Ample guarantee for future losses. And with all the peculiar advantages proposed by rivals, none have ever yet done better, for the living or the departed, than this old and well tried Institution.

The ÆTNA is not before the American people as an under bidder for subjects. Her standard is as liberal and fair as possible for the security and safety of all, who wish to be gainers in the end.

Persons contemplating an investment will find it to their interest to call on the subscriber, or any of his agents.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS.

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye slant? So let them talk, puff and blow, but stop, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

AN ACT

IN RELATION TO THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF CLERKS OF SUPERIOR COURTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That as this act will be incorporated in the general act respecting the practice and procedure of the Courts, required to be reported to the General Assembly at its present session, by the commissioners appointed for that purpose, it will be printed in the general act and not elsewhere among the acts of this General Assembly, unless otherwise hereafter directed.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of State is required to have the third section of this act, and that portion relating to the Superior Court Clerks, printed at least weekly in four papers published in this State, and the sum necessary for that purpose is hereby appropriated from any monies in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. The terms of the several Superior Courts of this State shall begin in each year at the times hereinafter stated, and shall continue to be held for two weeks (Sundays and legal holidays excepted,) unless the business shall be sooner disposed of.
